

Dominika Benešová Grundová, Charles University, Prague, CZ
Jeannine Gerbault, University of Michel Montaigne – Bordeaux 3, FR
Sabine Ylönen, University of Jyväskylä, FI
Paula Haavisto, University of Jyväskylä, FI

Socrates

What is EUROMOBIL?

- ❖ hybrid (online+offline, SS+F2F)
- ❖ multimedia
- ❖ language training
- ❖ information

PROGRAMME

➔ To support student mobility around Europe through ICT

What does EUROMOBIL offer?

❖ offline – CD/DVD

- language courses
- glossaries
- information material

❖ online – website

- programme download
- useful links
- project publications
- needs analysis
- discussion forum

EUROMOBIL language courses

SURVIVAL LEVEL

Czech

Hungarian

Finnish

Polish

Portuguese

Romanian

ADVANCED LEVEL

English

French

German

EUROMOBIL concepts (1)

JUST FOR YOU – IN DEVELOPMENT

BASIS = needs of foreign exchange students in target countries

- ❖ questionnaire survey of needs
- ❖ needs analysis
- ❖ production of appropriate content
- ❖ student feedback in piloting

EUROMOBIL concepts (2)

JUST FOR YOU – IN CONTENTS

SURVIVAL LEVELS

- for LWUTLs (CZ, FI, HU, PL, PT, RO)
- topics – basic everyday communication (getting around, shopping, lodging etc.)
- support language (English)

ADVANCED LEVELS

- for WUTLs (EN, DE, FR)
- topics – academic communication (school registration, attending lectures, sitting for exams etc.)
- no support language

EUROMOBIL concepts (3)

JUST IN TIME

BASIS = autonomous learning

- programmes available for download 24/7
- self-study when need perceived by user
- „linear“ programme structure → mirror of chronological student experience
- non-linear programme structure → free study trajectory

EUROMOBIL concepts (4)

JUST IN TIME

immediate feedback in activities:

- contextual help
- glossary
- solution
- self-evaluation
- hyperlinks to the web